May it please your Highness,

As fixed I came to see your Highness at 7 P.M. today. I waited for about ten minutes. I am suffering from some stomach trouble and I have to take my meal in time (7.30 P.M.). Hence I had to come away without seeing your Highness. I am sorry that your Highness's Private Secretary is not arranging my interviews with your Highness Punctually. I know your Highness

Many thanks for your letter received last night.

I am sorry to learn you are still suffering from stomach trouble & had to leave last night in order to have your meal at 7.30 P.M sharp. Quite understood.

I was unavoidably delayed a few minutes, and no one is to blame, as it was purely accidental.

Therefore I was painfully surprised to see that it should have created an impression in your mind of having been deliberate - which is untrue. ~~In view of this~~

I shall be glad to see you in the morning after 11 o'clock on any convenient day for you. Do let me know ahead the day on which you wish to see me.

Yours sincerely

to be a model for courtesy and consideration and I cannot believe that your Highness has any idea of treating me unkindly.

I will again come to see your Highness and at your convenience. Kindly intimate to me your Highness's pleasure and convenience.

Yours Sincerely.

K. Hanumanthaiya.
